3 86-101 Sections 86-101 to 86-163 and section 2 of 4 this act shall be known and may be cited as the Nebraska
5 Telecommunications Regulation Act.

6 Sec. 2. (1) A telecommunications company that proposes to 7 sell any exchange owned by the company shall submit an application
8 to the commission on a form provided by the commission for approval
9 of the sale. Within twenty days after receipt of the application, 10 the commission shall publish notice of the proposed sale in a

13 The notice shall inform the residents of this state of their right

15 or submission shall occur within fifteen days after publication
16 of the notice. The telecommunications company shall reimburse the 17 commission for the cost of such publication.

18 (2) In approving or rejecting the application, the 19 commission shall consider the protection of the public interest
20 and to the extent applicable to the exchange proposed to be sold,
21 (a) the adequacy of local telephone service, (b) the reasonableness
22 of rates for the local telephone service, (c) the provision of 911
23 service, enhanced-911 service, and other public safety services, 24 (d) the payment of taxes by the company, and (e) the ability and 25 commitment of the telecommunications company to provide modern,

1 state-of-the-art telecommunications services. If the commission
2 does not hold a hearing on the application, it shall issue an 3 order of approval or rejection within forty-five days after the 4 publication of the notice pursuant to subsection (1) of this 5 section. If the commission holds a hearing on the application, it 6 shall issue an order of approval or rejection within one hundred 7 twenty days after the publication of such notice. The order may 8 include conditions that the commission deems necessary to ensure 9 protection of the public interest pursuant to the criteria set
10 forth in this subsection.

16 exchange service within a local exchange area; and

17 (b) Sell or sale means the transfer, for consideration,
18 of title to the assets comprising an exchange. Sell or sale does
